

DU student brutally tortured by JCD activists

Varsity Correspondent

A student of Dhaka University was brutally tortured by some activists of ruling party backed Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) at the midnight of Monday.

The unruly JCD activists also pushed him out from the hall for his irregularities in JCD's political activities.

The victim identified as BM Mahmud Hasan, a 4th year student of Law Department and resident of Salimullah Hall.

According to sources, some JCD activists led by Shohag, Linkon, Shanta and Arefin, beat Hasan with iron stick at about 2am on Monday and pushed him out from the hall as he refused to attend in JCD's organisational activities.

Later some resident of the hall found Hasan in front of the hall and admitted him to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital with critical condition.

Sources alleged that, in last week the JCD activists beat and driven out a numbers of resident of Salimullah Hall for not joining in a political procession.
