

Dr Siddiqi made VC of NSU

President and Chancellor of North South University (NSU) has appointed Dr Hafiz GA Siddiqi as the Vice Chancellor for a four year term on the recommendation of the founders and board members of NSU Foundation and in accordance with the 1992 Private Universities Act.

Dr Siddiqi, a distinguished academician, has over thirty five years experience in teaching and research as well as in international consultancy. He received his MPA (Masters of Public and International Affairs) Degree from University of Pittsburg, USA in 1966, an MBA Degree from Indiana University in Bloomington, USA in 1969 and obtained his Ph.D. from University of Manchester Business School, UK in 1977. He is a pioneer in the field of Business Education in the country, author or coauthor of nine books and many research publications. He was the Director of Institute of Business Administration at Dhaka University.

Dr Siddiqi taught at Ohio State University, Columbus and Minnesota State University at Mankato, USA for about eight years before joining NSU in 1993. He worked as a Professor, Chief Academic Coordinator and Founding Dean of Business School at NSU. Since April 1998, he served as the NSU Pro Vice Chancellor, while additionally performing duties of the Vice Chancellor. He has been designated as an international advisor to Sea to Sky Foundation, founder of the first private university in Canada, says a Press release.
