

NSU orientation for freshmen

North South University (NSU) concluded orientation programme for the newly enrolled undergraduate students of Business, Computer Science and Engineering, Economics, English and Environmental Studies departments for Spring 2003 semester on its campus on Saturday, says a Press release.

Dr. Hafiz G.A. Siddiqi, NSU Vice Chancellor welcomed the students and thanked the guardians for showing their confidence in NSU. Congratulating the students for their success in the rigorous admission test, Professor Siddiqi assured them of high quality education and favourable atmosphere at NSU. He mentioned the National Teachers Day to be observed on 19 January and emphasized the importance of qualified and dedicated teachers.

Dr. Siddiqi also stressed the importance of discipline and the mandatory adherence to NSU code of conduct. Dr. Khaliquzzaman Elias, Dean, School of Arts and Social Sciences, Dr. ANM Meshquat Uddin, Dean, School of Business, the chairs and faculty members of the respective departments conducted the orientation programme.