

Govt colleges in divisional hqs reopen today

All government colleges in country's divisional headquarter will be reopened today (Saturday) following a government announcement, reports UNB.

UNB reporters from all the divisional headquarters informed that the authorities of all government colleges have decided to reopen their respective institutions on Saturday.

In Sylhet, authorities of Sylhet Osmani Medical College, Monmohan College, Government Col-
( See Page 15 Col. 7 )

Govt colleges

( From Page 1 Col. 8 )

lege, MC College and Govt. Women College have announced reopening their educational institutions tomorrow.

However, student dormitories of Osmani Medical college were already reopened on Friday.

In Barisal, all government and non-government colleges will be reopened from Saturday. BM College will resume its classes from Sunday although halls of this college were already reopened for students.

In Khulna, all colleges will be reopened from Saturday but Khulna University of Engineering Technology (KUET) will reopen on Sunday. The halls of this university were already reopened today.

The syndicate meeting of Khulna University will be held on Saturday to take the decision in this regard.

In Chittagong, all colleges will be reopened from Saturday.