Edn. Commission to submit report by Dec.next

The National Education Commission will submit its report along with recommendations by December next and the report for improvement of existing examination system has already been submitted to the government, Education Minister Mahbubur Rahman said in Dhaka on Tuesday, reports BSS.

He was inaugurating a week-long national seminar on training of educational personnel of the rural areas in Bangladesh organised by the Education Ministry and the UNESCO at NIEAER (National Institute for Education Extension and Research).

Dr. Hafez Ahmed, DG, NIEAER and, Mr. S.M. Saifuddin, Secretary, National UNESCO Commission also addressed the function.

Turning to rural development, the Minister said without educating rural children and families, rural development with limited resources was not possible and similarly with illiterate masses efforts for family planning or checking population growth could not be successful.
