Four DU students arrested while disbursing leaflets against Yunus

Four student activists were arrested from the Dhaka University campus on Monday while distributing leaflets against Nobel laureate Dr Mohammad Yunus, reports UNB.

Police said Zubair Ahmed, Shamsuddoha, Mamun, Yasir Arafat Bhuiyan and Belal Hossain were taken into custody from the campus in the morning. They were identified as activists of Chhatra Mukti, the student wing of Hizbut Tahrir Bangladesh.

The leaflets urged the students to boycott the 43rd convocation of Dhaka University and to refrain from taking certificates from the hands of Dr Mohammad Yunus.

The Nobel laureate Yunus became controversial for floating a political party and high interest on micro credits charged by his Grameen Bank.

The DU 43rd convocation is scheduled on Wednesday when Dr Yunus will be conferred Doctor of Law degree.
