Five DU halls raided

DU Correspondent

Members of law enforcing agencies raided five male halls of the Dhaka University (DU) on Friday midnight.

About eight platoons of police and a good number of DB men conducted the raid simultaneously in the halls and arrested 17 outsiders.

The law enforcers raided the halls to arrest the outsiders and JCD leaders and activists who defying the state of emergency, brought out a procession on the DU campus on Thursday protesting the arrest of BNP's senior joint-secretary general Tareque Rahman, said Helal Uddin, Office in-charge of Shahbagh Police Station while talking to this correspondent.

He also said that, he had already produced seven outsiders before the court.

According to sources, the raid simultaneously began at about 11.30pm at Surya Sen Hall, Mohsin Hall, Ziaur Rahman Hall, Kabi Jashimuddin Hall and Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Hall.

The law enforcing agencies shut the collapsible gates of the dormitories and searched the rooms during the two hours raid.
