Politics free campus

UGC Chairman
praises DUET
students

University Grants Commission (UGC) chairman Professor Dr M Asaduzzaman has praised Dhaka University Engineering and Technology (DUET) students and teachers of for keeping their campus "politics free", reports BSS.

"I appreciate you for keeping the campus politics-free," a UGC Press release on Friday quoted Asaduzzaman as telling the DUET students and teachers at a fresher reception at its campus at suburban Gazipur on January 31.

He urged them to lay emphasis on English education alongside the technical teachings as well as extra curricular and co-curricular activities.

DUET vice chancellor Professor Dr Auwarul Azim chaired the function.
