

New KU VC Happy with situation

Our Correspondent

Khulna, Mar 24:- Newly appointed Vice Chancellor professor Dr. Md. Saifuddin Ahmed Shah expressed his satisfaction over the prevailing situation in KU administration and academic quality. This was stated in a view exchanging meeting held at KU conference room Today (Monday) morning. After taking office, this was the first meeting with the local journalists. It may be mentioned here that immediate past VC Professor Dr. Mahbubur Rahman who was recently resigned from Canada expressed his dissatisfaction after taking charge on May 24, 2004.

The VC prof. Saifuddin Shah openly admitted that sound administration was prevailing on the campus. He satisfied over the administration, financial and academic discipline in present situation.

KU VC said University problem was known to him so it is very easy to him to solve any problem in future. He also assured to solve the prevailing problems. He hoped to set up a central library, opening more discipline including Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Bio Chemistry, Micro-Biology and Applied Physics and also to impact quality education to the students.

He sought co-operation from the journalists to solve any problems. Among others who participated in exchanging views were KU treasurer Prof. Abdul Hasib, prof. Dr. Nazrul Islam, Dr. A.K.M. Quamrul Islam, Prof. Shamim Mahbubul Haq, Khulna Pressclub Secretary S.M. Zahid Hossain, senior journalists Quazi Amanullah, Moqbul Hossain, Mintu, Sheikh Didar, Alam, Mamun Reza, Sohrab Hossain and Rakihuddin Pannu.