

JU students seek release of their colleagues

- JU Correspondent

The angry students of Jahangirnagar University on Saturday night put barricade on Dhaka-Aricha Highway for about 7 hours, smashed and set fire to buses for what they claimed, the arrest of three JU students by the members of Rapid Action Battalion-4 on fake allegation.

The angry students also laid siege to and vandalized the residences of the JU vice chancellor Professor Dr M Muniruzzaman and proctor Sayed Kamrul Ahsan.

The students brought out several protest processions all day long on Sunday and kept JU VC Professor Dr M Muniruzzaman along with other officials confined in the university administrative building till 7.00 pm.

Sources said the marked terrorist of Rangamatil village, adjacent to Jahangirnagar University, Tia Babu and his collaborators were walking in the JU central play-ground in a suspicious mood. They also teased a female student at that time. When Zakir and Mu-