

Bank Group support for countries of 6.4 percent, due to a combination of financial turmoil, slower exports and weaker commodity prices. The global financial crisis, coming so soon after the food and fuel crises, is likely to hurt the poor most in developing countries," said Robert B. Zoellick, President of the World Bank Group.

The World Bank Group is helping both governments and the private sector through lending, equity investments, innovative new tools, and safety net programs, he added.
