

Former RU VC Huda passes away

RU Correspondent

PSYCHOLOGY professor Moslem Huda, who was formerly a vice-chancellor of Rajshahi University, died at a clinic in the Rajshahi city on Monday night. He was 85.

He is survived by five sons.

The RU departments of psychology and philosophy, where he also taught, have called condolence meetings at the department offices.

He was buried at the Tikapara graveyard after his namaj-e-janaza held at Tikapara Eidgah in the city, following the zuhr prayers.

Present RU vice-chancellor Abdus Sobhan, pro vice-chancellor Muhammad Nurullah and treasurer Abdur Rahman offered their condolences to the deceased's family, said a university release.

RU Journalist Association and political, social and cultural leaders and activists also expressed their condolences.

Moslem Huda was appointed VC to the university in 1982.
