

May 16, 2012
Page 19

Law enforcers near the Public Library in the capital use water cannons on primary school teachers demonstrating for a regularisation of their jobs.

PHOTO: STAR

DEMO FOR REGULARISATION

Police action on teachers, 10 hurt

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The non-government schoolteachers were demonstrating for regularisation of their jobs. Police also picked up four teachers from the spot. Witnesses said around 5,000 agitated teachers were on their way to the Prime Minister's Office from the Central

SEE PAGE 19 COL 8

At least 10 non-government primary school teachers were injured yesterday when police charged batons on them during a demonstration at Shahbagh in the capital. Three of the injured teachers were rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital.