MEMBERS of the Comilla University Teachers Association has decided to observe one hour work abstention every day for unspecified period to press home their demands including promotion, make permanent to the provisional teachers and salary hike.

The association led by its president Ahsan Ullah and general secretary AKM Raihan Uddin took the decision at a meeting at the university.

One hour work abstention was observed after the meeting.

Ahsan Ullah said they had been urging the authority to meet their demands for the last four months without any positive response.

Raihan Uddin said they were forced to launch the movement as their demands did not fulfill. The movement would continue till the demands were fulfilled, he said.
