THE police arrested principal of a college on charge of leaking out questions of Thursday's HSC examinations in Hathajari upazila of the district.

The arrestee was Idris, principal of Patehabad College.

Sayedra Israt Jahan Parva, upazila nirbahi officer of Hathajari upazila, said the police arrested the principal red-handed at a toilet of the college at about 9:00am while he was disclosing the questions of Mathematics-1 to his daughter in advance over mobile phone.

His daughter was to sit for the Mathematics-1 examination slated to start at 10:00am.

A mobile court led by the UNO convicted the principal and sentenced him to two years imprisonment.
