Police have detained Habibur Rashid Habib, general secretary of Jatuyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), the student wing of the main opposition BNP.

A team of Detective Police picked up Habibur from the capital's Shantinagar area around 2:00pm yesterday, Masudur Rahman, deputy commissioner of Dhaka Metropolitan Police (Media Wing), told The Daily Star.

However, he was not shown arrested in any case as of 10:00pm last night. At least nine vehicles were torched in different spots of the capital following the detention.

The vehicles were set alight in Topkhana Road, Fakirapool, Jatrabari, Rampura, Hazipara, Khilgaon in the afternoon, said Fire Service and Civil Defense sources.

The party activists hurled handmade bombs at different places in the city, protesting Habib's detention.
