PROFESSOR Muhammad Mizan Uddin of sociology department and Professor Chowdhury Sarowar Jahan of geology and mining department have been appointed as vice-chancellor and pro-vice-chancellor respectively at Rajshahi University for the next four years.

The new VC Mizan Uddin said he was informed about his appointment from the Ministry of Education unofficially but the appointment letter was yet to reach him till Wednesday afternoon.

Speaker in parliament Abdul Hamid, in place of the university chancellor and also president of the country the late Zillur Rahman, approved the appointments, said sources.

Earlier, the tenure of the outgoing VC and pro-VC Professor Abdus Sobhan and Muhammad Nurullah ended on February 24 and the posts remained vacant for about three weeks at the university.

RU registrar MA Bari confirmed that he received the appointment letters of the VC and pro-VC at 5:00pm on Wednesday.
