

Non-govt high school teachers want 30pc dearness allowance

STAFF CORRESPONDENT L.

Bangladesh Shikshak Samity yesterday formed a human chain before Jatiya Press Club in the capital to realise a five-point demand including 30 percent of the basic salary as dearness allowance for non-government high school teachers and employees.

The demands include: increasing the retirement age of the teachers and employees to 65 years, including them in the proposed national pay scale and including librarians of non-government educational institutions in the monthly pay order facility, said a press release.
