

BAU unit JCD men explode cocktails before VC's residence

BAU CORRESPONDENT

Two persons were injured after Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) activists of Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) unit exploded at least four cocktails before the vice-chancellor's residence and broke some of its windowpanes in the Mymensingh city campus yesterday.

The two, a staff, Sumon, and a mason, Mustafa, engaged in renovating the residence, received first aid at the BAU healthcare centre.

Eyewitnesses said the 25-30 activists were in a procession brought out said pro-Jamaat Islami Chhatra Shibir activists were accompanying the JCD men and their aim was to create panic.

BAU unit JCD President

Far Mahmud admitted carrying out the attack. He said the procession was brought out protesting "the one-sided poll and illegal recruitment of teachers and staff".
