THE online application process for the first year honours programmes of Chittagong University for 2015-16 academic sessions would be held in September 7-30 and the admission tests would be held in November 1-9, said a press release signed by the university deputy register (education), SM Akbar, on Sunday.

The decision came from an academic council meeting, chaired by CU vice-chancellor Professor Dr Iftekhar Uddin Chowdhury.

The release also added that this year the university authorities would launch two new departments—music with 20 seats under arts faculty and physical education and sports sciences with 30 seats under institute of education and research.

For more information regarding the admission process, aspirants are asked to visit the university website at www.cu.ac.bd.
