

JU 41st batch celebrates four-year anniv

JU Correspondent

THE four-year anniversary celebration of the 41st batch of Jahangirnagar University under 2011-12 session began on Monday with the slogan "Let's dream a dream together."

JU vice-chancellor Professor Farzana Islam inaugurated the three-day programme as the chief guest at the Seleim Al Deen Mukta Mancha at about 5:00pm while Md Enamur Rahman, lawmaker of Dhaka-19, attended the first day of the programme as the special guest.

After the inaugural session, a cultural programme was held which was performed by the students of the 41st batch.

The three-day programmes also include a colourful procession, a dinner, a discussion session and a mega concert.

The 4th-year celebration procession would be brought out this morning from the Amar Ekushey sculpture premises on the campus.

The celebration concert will be held tomorrow evening at the Seleim Al Deen muktamancha, where renowned artist Arnab is expected to perform, the programme committee convener Shah Alam Saju Pulo said.

So far, around 800 students of the batch completed their registration to participate in the programme, he added.
