

Information & Communication Technology (ICT) Journalist forum of Bangladesh formed

Observer IT Report

The 1st general meeting for the Bangladesh ICT Journalist forum has been conducted on May 3rd 2002 at BCS's own premises, Sonartori Tower, Banglamotor, Dhaka. The newly formed BIJF the Association for Journalists who are working for Information & communication sector has been called for extended meeting on last Tuesday.

During that meeting around fifty journalists from different Medias working for Information & Communication sector were present & willingly exchanged their views to form a committee to form an elected committee for BIJF. All members decided to select Mr. Abir Hasan (Janakantha) Convener and Mr. AKM Ahamedul Islam Babu (Bangladesh Observer), Jesan Rahman (Ittefaq), Md. Abdullah Al Amin (Jugantor), M A Haque Anu (Computer Jagat), Sakawat Alam Rano (E-Biz), Parveez Sanchoy (Computer Tomorrow) Joint-Convener, Mr. Belal Ahmed (IT-Com) coordinator and Azker Kagaj, Banglabazar Potrica, Daily Star, Financial Express, New Nation, Independent, Daily Arthonity, Bhoorer Kagaj, Desh Bangla, Weekly Des Bedesh, Monthly Orthokantha, Bangladeshi Sangbad Shangsta (BSS), UNB, Daily Inquilab, Daily Provat, Daily Martebhumi, Computer Barta, Shikkha Bichitra, Weekly 2000, Weekly Purnima, Weekly Robbar, Weekly Dhaka Courier, Weekly Bichitra, Holiday, Channel I, ATN Bangla, E-TV, BTV and others medias involving with IT were registered as member. Also formed few sub-committees to implement rules & regulations, new member collection & conducting seminars & workshops.

The 2nd general meeting for the forum will be held on 24th May, Friday at Tech-Bangla, House - 90, Road - 11/A, Dhanmondi R/A, Dhaka. All journalists working for Information & communication sector are requested to present on this occasion. For further clarification please contact 018250309.