

IU science faculty officials, teachers observe strike

From Islamic University

ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY, Aug. 3.—The teachers, officers and employees of Science faculty of Islamic University (IU) observed one hour sit-in-strike in front of the IU VC office as their salary is not paid.

The salary of 125 teachers, officers and employees was stopped from July. Classes and examinations of the faculty have been suspended from August 1. They declared that they will hold black batch today (Sunday) as their part of movement. They protested deployment of extra police force in the science faculty.
