Khaleda urges students to devote to studies

Newly elected leaders of Satkhira and Kalaroa colleges Students Union together with district level leaders of BNP met Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia at Sugandha in Dhaka on Friday evening, reports BSS.

Speaking on the occasion Begum Zia urged the student community to devote to studies to prepare themselves as future leaders in different fields. In this context, she stressed the need for enhancing the standard of education so that our children are not attracted to foreign countries for studies.

Begum Zia said her Government has given top priority to education as it believes in education as a vehicle to create awareness among the masses.

Referring to terrorism resorted to some in educational institutions, she said the government would take stern measures against the trouble mongers.

Turning to students belonging to JCD Begum Zia said it was their responsibility to convince students belonging to other organisations to shun the path of violence and indiscipline. She advised the members of JSD to reach the politics of the organisation among others to integrate them in the development process.

Begum Zia said there is need to uphold the ideals and principles of the party as without it there cannot be any lasting result in any field.

Presided over by newly elected Vice President of Kalaroa College Students Union Rafiqul Islam, the
