

03 JUL 1993

পৰিষে... ৩... ৩... ৩... ৩...

Khaleda's call to JCD workers

Make healthy trend in student politics

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia on Friday night asked the members of the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), students wing of BNP to work unitedly to create a healthy and fair trend in the country's student politics, maintain congenial academic atmosphere and make campuses terrorism free, reports BSS.

The Prime Minister was addressing the leaders of JCD Dhaka University Unit Conference Preparatory Committee who called on her at Sugandha.

BNP Student Affairs Secretary Advocate Mujibur Rahman, DUCSU VP Amanullah Aman, MP, JCD President Fazlul Huq Milon, JCD General Secretary Nazim Uddin Alam, Convener of JCD Dhaka University Unit Conference Preparatory Committee Shahiduddin Chowdhury Anny and JCD leaders Kamruzzaman Ratan and Shahjahan Howlader Sujan spoke on the occasion.

The Prime Minister advised the students to devote to extracurricula activities including sports and debate besides their normal studies which she said would help eradicate terrorism and create competitive zeal among the students.

Referring to the wave of victory by JCD in different college student union elections, Begum Zia said this had demonstrated JCD's credibility and acceptability among the younger generation. She asked the JCD members to keep up with this reputation of victory.

Begum Zia accused that the past autocratic regime attempted to destroy the image of Dhaka University, the country's highest seat of learning. She urged the JCD members to work for maintaining its reputation.

Referring to the Bangladeshi students going abroad for studies she said we must maintain academic atmosphere to keep our children here."

Contd. on page 8 col. 8

Students politics

Contd. from page 1

The Prime Minister said certain quarters were out to create anarchy and disrupt academic atmosphere in the educational arena and asked the students community to foil such attempts.

Begum Zia advised the JCD members to work devotedly for turning the organisation into a dynamic one and to prepare themselves for taking up the future leadership of the nation.

Awards and cooperation would be given for good work of the students she said adding nobody would be spared if any one was found guilty.