

PM asks students to maintain campus peace

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia Friday night said that the present government had attached the highest priority to the education sector earmarking the largest budgetary allocation to it for developing human resources to accelerate the pace of development and end poverty, reports BSS.

The Prime Minister was addressing the newly-elected leaders of students union of eleven different colleges under Khulna district and city in Dhaka Friday evening at her Sugandha office. Foreign Minister A.S.M. Mustafizur Rahman was present. Whip Ashraf Hossain, BNP leader A.K.M. Ziauddin, Khulna city BNP President M. Nazrul Islam, General Secretary Manzurul Islam, DUCSU Vice-President Amanullah Aman MP, General Secretary Khairul Kabir Khokan, Chhatra Dal President Fazlul Hoq Milan and General Secretary Nazimuddin Alam and leaders of the newly-elected student unions of different colleges also spoke.

Welcoming the newly-elected student leaders, Begum Zia said the candidates of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal had been winning in different educational institutions student unions across the country because the students community as well as the people of the country trust most both the Chhatra Dal and BNP.

She said people of the country want peace and security and the members of Chhatra Dal and BNP had to work hand in hand with the people to ensure peace and security for the unhindered development of the country.

Begum Zia asked the students to help maintain academic atmosphere on the campus.