VCs call on PM Bring back lost heritage: Hasina

Vice-Chancellors of country's ten universities called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her office in Dhaka Monday afternoon.

Talking to them, Sheikh Hasina said that her government was determined to create education-friendly atmospheres on the campus.

Recalling the golden age in the country's educational arena, the Prime Minister called upon the VCs to make a collective thrust to bring back the 'lost' heritage and glory of educational institutes.

Referring to various measures taken by her government to curb terrorism from the campuses, the Prime Minister said, that the people have started witnessing the fruits of the anti-terrorist steps.

She also urged the VCs to pay special attention to subjects related to the country's economy and development while formulating the academic curricula.

Food and Agriculture Minister Begum Motia Chowdhury was also present on the occasion.
