

New VC of BAU

Eminent Soil Scientist Professor Dr. Mosharraf Hossain Miah on Thursday took over the charge of office of Bangladesh Agriculture University as Vice Chancellor.

Former professor, Department of Soil Science of the same university Dr. Mosharraf took over the charge from his predecessor Dr. Amirul Islam at a simple ceremony at the Vice Chancellor's office.

Hailing from Sherpur, Dr. Mosharraf took B Sc. A G degree securing First position in First Class in 1971 and M Sc. degree in the same discipline from the same university in 1972. Later Dr. Mosharraf received Ph. D degree from Dandy University of UK, as a Commonwealth Scholar in 1981 and completed Commonwealth Post Doctoral Fellowship in 1988 from the same university.

Dr. Mosharraf after joining the Soil Science Department of Bangladesh Agriculture University as lecturer in 1975 has served the Institution in various capacities.

He has authored a number of research articles and participated in various seminar, symposium, workshop etc. both at home and abroad.