A meeting of Presidium of Awami League on Sunday let its support to the countrywide dawn-to-dusk hartal tomorrow (Tuesday) called by Bangladesh Chhatra League.

Bangladesh Chhatra League, the front organisation of Awami League called the countrywide hartal in protest against police raid on Shamsunnahar Hall of Dhaka University and attack on female students.

Presided over by acting President of Awami League Abdus Samad Azad, the Presidium meeting protested against the police raid on Shamsunnahar Hall and attack on students by police.

The meeting demanded immediate removal of the Vice Chancellor and Proctor of the University and punishment to those involved in the police raid on girls' hall at midnight.

It protested against the closure of Dhaka University and demanded immediate reopening of the university.

The meeting observed that the police attack on female students and arrest had surpassed the activities of Pakistani occupation army.

The meeting demanded punishment to the police official and "Chhatra Dal" cadres, those who were involved in the attack on students.

Terming the agitation of general students as "mass uprising" the meeting congratulated the general students for their courageous step of agitating against the police attack on female students.

The meeting urged the Government to immediately meet the demands of the students.
