BCL member attacked at CU

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Apr 19:—A BCL leader was stabbed allegedly by a group of Shibir cadres of the Chittagong University (CU) on Thursday afternoon. According to the sources, a group of four to five armed cadres of Shibir charged on Ehsanul Haq, a leader of ICS of CU unit, on Shahi College premises adjacent to the railway station at about 4.30 pm. They injured him mercilessly with sharp knives. The victim Ehsanul Haq, a student of final year of Marketing Department, was returning to his residence by a rickshaw after appearing in an examination. He was admitted to a city clinic in a critical condition, according to his relatives and concerned doctors.
