Provost of DU Bangabandhu Hall removed

Varsity Correspondent

Dhaka University authorities removed the provost of the university's Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Hall on Monday. Before one and a half year of his term, the DU authorities removed Prof. Golam Rahman, a teacher of Mass Communication and Journalism Department, without assigning any ground. His replacement was not named till Monday night.

In an official letter signed by the university Registrar Mohammad Selim, the DU authorities informed Prof. Rahman of his removal to be effective from Tuesday. Prof. Rahman was appointed the provost of the dormitory on August 1, 2000 for three years.

DU sources said Prof. Rahman was under pressure from the present administration of the university to resign, but he refused to do so. Even the university's top executive asked him to quit the post.
