Evicted bus owners turn DU campus as new terminal

The bus owners of Dhaka-Dhamrai route have turned a road along the Dhaka University campus as the new terminal hours after they were removed from Gulistan in the morning on Wednesday, reports BSS.

Students and teachers of the Dhaka University to their surprise found hundreds of buses were parked along the two sides of the Palashi-Nilkhel Road along the Zahirul Huq Hall of the campus.

Provost of Zahirul Huq Hall Aminul Islam said that he was surprised to see that the Dhaka-Dhamrai bus stand had been shifted to the roads beside his hall.

"I came to know on Wednesday morning that the bus owners of Dhaka-Dhamrai routes have suddenly decided to park their vehicles beside Zahirul Huq Hall", he said.

The provost said that police have been informed of the matter who assured the DU authorities to remove the buses immediately.

He, however, said the police should remain vigilant so that the bus owners did not try this again
