DU classes to resume Oct 3

Varsity Correspondent

Classes of Dhaka University will resume on October 3, according to the latest decision by the university's highest executive body, Syndicate.

The decision to reopen the university after 67 days of 'forced closure' was taken at an emergency meeting of the DU Syndicate at the Administrative Building on Saturday.

According to the fresh schedule, the university authorities will open the gates of the resident dormitories at 10:00 am on September 29 before resuming the classes.

Earlier on August 29, another emergency Syndicate meeting had decided to unlock the dormitories for the students on September 8 prior to holding of classes from September 12.

In its very next meeting on September 4, the Syndicate re-
