

NOV. 29 2002

JCD president of CMC held

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Sept 28:-Police arrested the President of Chittagong Medical College (CMC) unit of Jatiatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) from the college campus this afternoon, (Saturday).

Panchlaish police nabbed Rashedufinabi Biplob, a third year MBBS student and president of JCD, in front of the CMC cafeteria at about 4:00 p.m.

Police said that Biplob was an accused of eight criminal cases.

Earlier, he was caught red-handed along with three of his companions while extorting money from a shop in July this year and acquitted from the charge by a trial court early in this month.

A senior police official said that after being acquitted from charge by the court, Biplob went notorious and terrorized the CMC area again.

Removal of OC demanded

The leaders of Hathazari unit of Jatiatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) demanded immediate removal of the Officer-in-Charge (OC) of Hathazari police station and called him corrupt, mentally imbalanced.

Addressing a press conference at the auditorium of Buddhist Foundation in the city today, the leaders alleged that OC Delwar Hossain Bhuiyan involved in gross malpractice including hill-cutting, illegal logging and protecting terrorists.

Vice-president of Hathazari Thana unit of BNP Sathi Uday Kusum Barua read out the written statement at the press conference.

IMS students to siege rly-road

The students of Institute of Marine Science (IMS) of Chittagong University (CU) staged a sit-in demonstration in front of the Vice-Chancellor's (VC) office today (Saturday).

The IMS students also observed a hunger strike on the 12th of their indefinite demonstration.

They also decided to stage a total siege on Dhaka - Chittagong road on September 30.