KU teacher suspended for harassing colleague

Staff Correspondent · Khulna

THE Khulna University authorities suspended Aminul Islam, lecturer of agro-technology department, on Monday following an allegation of harassing one of his female colleagues. KU registrar Md Tipu Sultan said a female assistant professor of the department submitted a complaint to him on January 23 that said that Aminul used to tease her. The university vice-chancellor Professor Fayekuzzaman formed a probe committee in this regard and served him a show cause notice after receiving the report of the committee, the registrar said, adding that the authorities issued the suspension order as his response to the notice did not satisfy them.
