New Education Policy soon Naheed

CHITTAGONG, Feb 26: Education Minister Nurul Islam Naheed here today said the government would announce new education policy based on Dr. Qudrat E Khuda commission and by taking into consideration all previous education policies, reports BSS.

All the good aspects and suggestions of education policies of last 37 years will be included in new policy for ensuring quality education that remained a much-cherished desire of the people, the Minister added.

The education minister said this while addressing as chief guest at a discussion on primary and mass education organized by Chittagong district administration at local circuit house this afternoon.

Addressing the function the minister said only single syllabus will be introduced for all aiming at removing discriminations and barriers in the sector and to create equal facilities and standard for all.

"We want to do something effective and time befitting for the sector for greater interest of the nation and irrespective of caste, creed and parochial politics" the education minister said.
