

50th founding anniversary of Narsingdi Public Library

The 50th founding anniversary of Narsingdi Cultural Club and Public Library was celebrated in Narsingdi on Wednesday amid enthusiasm and festivity, reports BSS.

Former Vice-Chancellor of the Dhaka University Prof. Dr Abdul Mannan was the chief guest while Swapan Kumar Saha, General Secretary of National Press Club, Former Naval Chief Rear Admiral Nurul Islam, Principal Jitendra Nath Barua, Shahdat Hussein Mantu, a renowned businessman, Prof: Pranab Chakrabarty, Abdul Matin Bhuiyan, Abul Hayat Sarker, Md Kaikobad, Habibur Rahman Habib, Mia Mohammad Selim, Journalist Nibarun Roy, Advocate Nasir Uddin Bhuiyan, Asaduzzaman Khokan and Baset Bhuiyan, among others, spoke on the occasion. Club President Alhaj Mohammad Ali presided.

Recalling the contribution of the founder members of the club, the speakers called upon the students to devote themselves in their study for building up their career to take the future leadership of the country.

They also said there is no alternative to education, that is why every student should keep himself engaged in gathering knowledge and wisdom.

The speakers reminded the audience that the founder members with that objective established the club with a big library in 1951.

The function was ended with a tasteful cultural function.