Retirement benefit of 75 months to non-govt teachers

CHITTAGONG, Oct 4--The government has taken steps to provide retirement benefits of 75 months at a time to non-government teachers, reports UNB.

Water Resources Minister Engineer I.K Siddiqui said this while addressing the triennial conference of Bangladesh Teachers' Association (BTA) of Sitakunda upazila unit at the upazila auditorium Thursday.

Later, the minister distributed stipend among 211 students of four colleges and two madrasas of the upazila.

Sitakunda Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO), upazila BNP convenor and BTA Sitakunda unit general secretary also addressed the function with local BTA president Ashutosh Chakrawarty in the chair, said a PID handout.
