

Mithu's killing

Vehicles damaged at Mirpur Darus Salam

A group of students of Bangla College in Mirpur went on rampage Thursday afternoon and damaged at least a dozen of vehicles as backlash of JCD leader Abu Ishaq Mithu killing, reports UNB.

Abu Ishaq Mithu, vice-president of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal Bangla College unit, was shot dead on Wednesday at Mirpur Darus Salam road area.

Protesting the killing, a group of JCD supporters came down on the Mirpur road in front of college and damaged more than a dozen vehicles creating panic in the area.

Police picked up 10 people in connection of damaging the vehicles.

Police sources claimed that Mithu was killed when a bullet came out from an unlicensed pistol, which he was carrying.
