

Admission tests in govt schools begin today

Admission tests in 24 government schools of the city begin today (Thursday), reports BSS.

This year, officials said, more than four candidates will vie for one seat.

Around 32,274 students will sit for admission tests for 7,381 seats in the Government schools from class one to nine.

Officials of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education, Dhaka Zone, said the admission tests will be held on January 9, 11 and 13.

Admit cards had already been set to the applicants from the respective schools and all preparations for the tests have been completed.
