CHITTAGONG, May 26:—The Progressive Student Alliance (PSA), an organization of left leaning student bodies, today staged a sit-in demonstration in front of the Vice-Chancellor office of Chittagong University.

They staged the demonstration programme in protest against the recent fees hike decision of the university authority.

The workers of PSA staged their hour-long sit-in programme from 11:30 a.m. During their programme they also handed over the signature sheets of the university students.

Earlier, the workers and leaders of the PSA brought out a protest on the campus and chanted slogans against the university authority.

After that in a short meeting in front of the administrative building of the university the PSA leaders announced a student strike on the campus on Wednesday on the same issue.

In the meeting the leaders blamed the university authority for making the education as a product.

Presided over by the President of Samajtantrik Chhatra Front Monjurul Huq the meeting was also addressed among others by President of Bangladesh Chhatra Union Ripayan Barua and convenor of Chhatra Federation Helaluddin.
