

Prof. Nuruddin Gold Medal set up in DU

A new Gold Medal/Scholarship Fund after late Professor QAIM Nuruddin, a renowned teacher of the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism of Dhaka University has been established in the Dhaka University and in this regard UNB Chief Editor Enayetullah Khan handed over a cheque for Tk. 1.25 lakh (Taka one lakh and twenty five thousand) to the Vice-Chancellor of the University Prof. SMA Faiz on Sunday at the latter's office, says a Press release.

On this occasion Chairman of the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism Prof. Sakawat Ali Khan, Prof. Golam Rahman, Prof. AAMS Arefin Saiddique, UNB Chairman Amanullah Khan and Acting Registrar of the University Anwar Hussain were present.

Out of the income of this fund, each year a student who will secure the first position in BSS (Hons.) examinations from the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism of Dhaka University will be awarded this 'Prof. QAIM Nuruddin Gold Medal.'

Receiving the cheque the Vice-Chancellor thanked the donor and his other family members for such a generous donation to set up this 'Prof. QAIM Nuruddin Gold Medal/Scholarship fund' in the University.