

6 cocktails seized from DU VC's residence

Six cocktails were recovered on Friday from the residence of Vice-chancellor of the Dhaka University ASM Fáyez, reports UNB.

Police said somebody phoned the VC's residence at 8am and informed about the cocktails. But, no such explosive was found at that time.

Later, Ramna police rushed to the spot and recovered the cocktails at 2pm from the lawn of the house after another phone call by the unidentified source.

Police sources said the cocktails might be kept only for frightening the residents.
