

26 APR 2003
Tel ... 7 ...

Residence of DU teacher attacked

Court Correspondent

The residence of DU law department teacher Shafiqur Rahman was allegedly attacked with fire arms by ruling party back student activists on Friday night.

On Friday night the teacher who had enomical relation with a section of Jatyabadi Chhatra Dal told the Bangladesh Observer that a group of Chhatra Dal activists fired four to five round bullets at his Shahidullah Hall residence. None of his family members were wounded. While the attack was held he was in his residence.

On the otherhand the OC of Ramna Thana who is on the way to place of occurence told this coorespondent that he was informed about the incident over telephone.

Till filing the report, no case is registered with the police station.