

BCL rally calls for movement against govt

Varsity Correspondent

Opposition Awami League's student front Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) staged a huge showdown in observance of its 55th founding anniversary on the Dhaka University campus on Saturday.

It was the largest gathering of BCL supporters on the DU campus after Awami League stepped (See Page 15 Col. 3) down from power. The entire Arts Building area wore a festive look as BCL supporters from different units came with colourful banner and festoons.

BCL rally

(From Page 1 Col. 8)

Addressing brief rally at Aamtala, BCL President Liakat Sikder condemned the leaders of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) for unleashing terrorism in the campuses across the country.

He urged all the BCL supporters to launch massive movement against the misrule of BNP-Jamaat axis.

Former Presidents of BCL, former vice-presidents of DUCSU and mid ranking Awami League leaders also attended the function.

Following the rally, a colourful procession paraded different city thoroughfares.

Our Rajshahi Correspondent adds: Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) Rajshahi District and Rajshahi University Unit observed 55th foundation day on Saturday.

BCL held a rally and meeting at Shaheb Bazar Zero Point. Presided over by Abdul Momin the meeting appealed for United Movement of all Pro-liberation forces under the banner of BCL to wipe out autocratic rule of 4-party Alliance government. They alleged, BCL has become main target of present government. The meeting was addressed by Akkas Ali Babu, Ebadul Huq Babu, Syed Sohel, Pankaj Dev etc.