

Study circle on Siddiqui's book held

A study circle was organized by Community Development Library (CDL) on Sunday on "Bangladeshe Uchcha Shikkhar Sankat o Sambhabona" written by Professor Zillur Rahman Siddiqui at CDL auditorium.

The programme was presided over by Kazi Fazlur Rahman former Adviser, Caretaker Government. Professor Syed Monjurul Islam, Department of English, University of Dhaka. Dr. Sonia Nishat Amin, Dept. of History, University of Dhaka were present as the guests of honour.

Professor Zillur Rahman Siddiqui is a renowned educator of our country. He wrote several articles on education system of Bangladesh and its problems and possibility during his teaching life. This book contains 26 selected articles out of them.

In this book Professor Zillur Rahman has written some significant article on education system of Bangladesh, terrorism in educational institution, degradation of quality of education, irregularities of administration, problems of higher education, self governing university, future of English education in Bangladesh, education system of private university etc. Ten regular members of CDL discussed on the book.

Dr. Sonia Nishat Amin said, the writer was bold and outspoken in his writing.

Professor Syed Monjurul Islam said that Professor Zillur Rahman has described many important issues here according to his education philosophy, such as structure of higher education, subject on higher education, management, fund etc. Even he has explained about the law by which the university will run.

Professor Siddiqui said there are both positive and negative side in our educational field. Some irresponsible decision is being taken that may spoil our education system. Side by side some devoted persons are working silently to educate the children of remote areas of Bangladesh. He praised such initiative to educate our rural children.