

'Quality training needed for varsity teachers'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

University Grants Commission (UGC) Chairman Prof Nazrul Islam on Thursday said quality training and research activities are needed for the university teachers for their professional improvement.

"The improvement of quality of higher education is not possible without advanced researches and the publication of their results. It is crucially needed to arrange quality training for the university teachers," UGC chairman said this while addressing a discussion as the chief guest at its auditorium.

Training either in short-term or long-term forms is significant to run any organisation successfully, he added.

UGC organised the discussion on 'Foundation training for university teachers and certificate distribution ceremony' of the 3rd batch which was conducted by Graduate Training Institute of Bangladesh Agriculture University.

UGC member Prof AHM Zehadul Karim, who moderated the function, said well-planned curriculum, competent teachers and congenial atmosphere only can ensure quality of education.

A total of 25 young teachers from public universities from across the country took part in the training programme financed by UGC.

UGC members Dr Ehsanul Haque, Prof Abdul Hakim, Prof Tajul Islam and Prof Amena Begum and UGC Secretary Dr Lutfu Alam also took part in the discussion.
