

DU to hold daylong programme marking Dhaka's 400 yrs as capital

Dhaka University will hold a daylong gala programme on the campus today (Sunday), marking Dhaka's 400 years as a capital, reports UNB.

DU Vice Chancellor Prof SMA Faiz will inaugurate the function at Mall Chattar at 10 am.

On the occasion, a discussion meeting titled 'History & Culture of Dhaka City's 400 years and Dhaka's Language' will be held there in the morning. History Department will organize the discussion.

Dhaka University Debating Society will arrange a debate at about 11:30am.

Prior to the inaugural function, students of Fine Arts Faculty and resident students of different halls of the university will gather at the place in colorful processions at 9:30am. A photo and map exhibition will also be arranged at TSC Games Room on the occasion.

Besides, a concert will be held at Mall Chattar at 3pm.

Authorities said there will be no class in the university tomorrow (Sunday), but the university vehicles will operate as usual.
