

Report
০৩

School talents hunt begins in Ctg Feb 8

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Feb 3: - Marks all-rounder, a hunt for talents among the school students, will begin here in the port city on February 8.

This was announced at a press conference held at a city hotel yesterday.

Dristy, a Port City based debate and cultural organization, is hosting the contest while management of Marks brand powdered milk, a product of Abul Khair Company is the sponsor of the event.

General Secretary of Dristy, Saif Chowdhury, Consultant of Abul Khair Company Tasnim Karim and Chief Executive Officer of Advertising Agency Benchmark Asraf Kaisar among others addressed the press conference.

Competitions on music, recitation, dance, acting, painting and quiz are among the highlights of the program.

Students from Class one to ten are eligible for the competition in three separate groups.