

40 Report

Silent protest on RU campus

A Correspondent

SOME general students of Rajshahi University (RU) protested silently on Sunday demanding the unconditional release of all detained teachers and students on Aug. campus violence.

About 200 students of RU gathered at 11 am in front of Mass Communication and Journalism Deptt. after wearing black ribbons and took part on a silent rally without footwear demanding the unconditional release of 10 students and an employee of Rajshahi University.

(See Page 15 Col. 4)

Silent protest

(From Page 1 Col. 8)

The silent rally visited the main road of Rajshahi University. After completing the silent rally they gathered at the graveyard of Dr. Samsuzzoha, who was killed by army in 1969 at RU campus. The students observed 5 minutes silence.

Md. Masud Rana, a student of Applied Chemistry Deptt spoke. He demanded immediate unconditional release of 10 detained students and an employee of RU. They will go for a tougher programme.